SENATOR LINDSAY predicts that the pending tariff bill will pass the Senate next week.

Representative M. Y. H. of Louisiana, has introduced a bill in Congress which is said to meet President Cleveland's views and it will be supported by the South.

Gov. Ben Taylor, of Tennessee, says: "I'd rather be a poor mountain farmer, than a rich planter and an oil man," than Grant Cleveland, who, the President's chair with two baby girls on one hand and the tariff bill on the other.

The Crittenden Press says: It is rumored that the Republicans will appear the demand of the colored brother for substantial recognition by presenting him to the colored school districts. The rumor finds confirmation, however.

A DISASTERS from Atlanta says: A row is likely to be precipitated at the forthcoming Southern Baptist convention in Dallas, Tex. Welsh, a Catholic, is the United States Senator from Georgia. He is reported to be in trouble by an attack on Governor Northern, who is a member of the Baptist church and who appointed Senator Welch.

KENTUCKY has been a losing field for insurance companies during 1863. According to Company's report, the premiums for the year ended June 30, 1863, the total receipts of the company in the way of premiums was $26,000,000.00. In the same period, they paid for losses $14,107, and an commission to agents $875,276, making their expenses in finding numbers $20,000,000 over and above their receipts.

Several years ago the people of Union County, State of, voted a tax upon themselves for building a railroad through that county. The road was never built, and the people refused to pay, so the trustees of the road company obtained judgment through the U. S. Court to compel the payment of the tax and now the trustees are trying to collect rather than compel his people to pay the amount voted, and nobody else will have it.

CONGRESSMAN STONE.
STRONG ENDORSEMENT FOR AN OUT OF THE DISTRICT BILL.

(From the Southern Quaker.)

Without in any way proposing to interfere with the affairs proper to belong to the neighbors of the Big Creek District, the Hon. William J. Stone, of Massachusetts, has sent a bill to the conference committee of the house and senate. The secretary's statement being true, the Democrats of the country have reason to demand that the Senate should do its work in time. We refer to the Hon. William J. Stone that there is none more deserving.

The reason assigned by his opponents is that his defeat constitutes the greatest argument. They have all the light they want, and the people are willing to do business. They have been kept on the rugged edge of expectancy long enough. They have the right to know what has been done to make a victory. They want congress to act. The idea that they must wait another year is abominable.

They have placed the power of immediate decision in Democratic hands, and they must have a definite date when they can be sure that the bill will be passed.

—The bill, if passed, will encompass the whole of the state, and will be seriously wounded.

Now a change was made to accommodate the bill.

Mr. John Hall, of Pittsburg, was instrumental in getting the bill passed, and he has been a good friend to us.

Agonizing Headaches

Indigestion—Distress in the Stomach.

Hood's Saraparilla Accomplishes Desired Results.

C. T. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

"Dear Sirs: I find it difficult to get the efficacy andorative powers of Hood's Saraparilla and Soda. For years I have been a great sufferer from Digestion and other times accompanied by pain in the stomach, etc. I noticed in different papers mentioned that Hood's Saraparilla had wrought and thought I would try it. It has Accomplished in the Desired Results.

The pain and distress in the stomach and the severe attacks of indigestion have all gone, as well as my indigestion. I can now enjoy a meal without any trouble. I am now in the best of health. I thank you for your Hood's Saraparilla. I will never again buy any other medicine.

Very truly yours, Wm. H. [Signature]

The dust arose from a traveling bed of cattle, and sheep and goats, and camels, and horses, and mules, and the great host that Jacob sends to gain the good will of his brother Esau. The operation was a success, but the day after he had sent his brother, he touched the hollow of his thigh; and he said, "I have seen God, and I have been smitten." And he said, "Let me go for the day breaketh." And he said, "I will not let thee go except thou bless me."

One of the ancient superstitions which take hold of many people who travel is that they must always have a lucky day. Any day, however, with very intelligent knowledge that no day, even especially marked as an unlucky day, may be a great day.

But the operation was a success, and the progress of it must be delayed or delayed by the coming of night.
